

made necessary by this year's failure to fund the preservation program. While the House bill differs slightly from the Senate bill in its time extension, I am quite hopeful that the Senate will concur with this small change.

Mr. Speaker, the Department of Housing and Urban Development supports this legislation and has sent a letter indicating its support. The bill is also endorsed by the AARP. The legislation represents the hard work of the Committee on Banking and Financial Services which authorizes the housing programs. If we fail to take action today, many of the important provisions will be delayed for many, many months to come at the least. Therefore, I urge the adoption of this legislation.

Again, let me thank the gentleman from New York [Mr. LAZIO] for the hard work that he and his staff and the staff on the Democratic side have put into bringing this bill about today.

Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. LAZIO of New York. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume. I would like to thank again the gentleman from Massachusetts [Mr. KENNEDY] for his hard work on this. This will be the third time actually that these provisions protecting seniors will have passed on the House floor. We have some additional provisions I think that will be helpful, in particular the flood insurance provisions which have been mentioned by both myself and by the gentleman from Massachusetts [Mr. KENNEDY].

Mr. Speaker, let me take this opportunity if I can to bid farewell to somebody who has served Congress very well, very admirably and will be missed I know on both sides of the aisle, and that is Kelsay Meek, who has been the staff director I know of the committee and has served with distinction. I know we have already had plenty of opportunity to acknowledge the contributions that the gentleman from Texas [Mr. GONZALEZ] has made to this body and to America. I want to reiterate again my respect for him, and again, my hat off to Kelsay Meek and wish him good luck in his future endeavors.

Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. KENNEDY of Massachusetts. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume. I want to just let the chairman of the Subcommittee on Housing and Economic Opportunities know how much I appreciate his mentioning not only Kelsay Meek. Obviously this has come as a result of the retirement of one of the great Members and great advocates of housing policies in this country, HENRY GONZALEZ, who is going back to Texas and leaves a tremendous staff that has been dedicated to him.

Kelsay is the leader of that staff, and someone whom I have come to know and deeply appreciate in terms of his knowledge of housing issues and his deep commitment to protecting the very, very poor people of this country, but he also has many other members of his staff that are also moving on. We wish all of those the best, and are delighted that many of the members of the staff are going to be staying to do battle with others on the other side of the aisle at times in the future.

I do want to also acknowledge, while we have just a moment on the House floor, the fact that I know the gentleman from New York [Mr. LAZIO] and I will miss the gentleman from New York [Mr. FLAKE], a dear friend who is leaving the committee, another fine member of the Committee on Banking and Financial Services who did tremendous work on housing issues over the course of his career. I know he is going back to the city of New York. It is the first time I have had a chance to just acknowledge the loss of a deep personal friend here in the House who will be going back but serving a higher calling than perhaps even we in the House of Representatives.

Mr. Speaker, I thank the chairman of the committee for his actions, and I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore [Mr. SNOWBARGER]. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from New York [Mr. LAZIO] that the House suspend the rules and agree to the resolution, House Resolution 329.

The question was taken; and (two-thirds having voted in favor thereof) the rules were suspended and the resolution was agreed to.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

GENERAL LEAVE

Mr. LAZIO of New York. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days within which to revise and extend their remarks on S. 562.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from New York?

There was no objection.
